BEIRUT, Lebanon — American hostage Terry Anderson, in a videotape released Monday by his kidnappers, read a statement that accused the Reagan administration of blocking his release and urging the next president to do

President Reagan denied interfering with efforts to free Anderson, and his chief spokesman, Marlin Fitzwater, denounced the tape as "a cynical attempt" to influence the Nov. 8 election.

Copies of the 2-minute, 35-second tape were delivered to two Western news agencies in Beirut four days after Anderson, 41, marked his fourth birthday in captivity. Statements from the pro-Iranian Islamic Jihad, which holds Anderson, accompanied the tapes.

Israelis vote in election tied to violence

JERUSALEM — Israelis vote Tuesday in an election tied to 11 months of violence that has cost the lives of more than 300 Palestinians and 10 Jews, including a rabbi's daughter and her three children killed in a weekend attack.

Sunday's firebomb attack on a bus that killed 27-year-old schoolteacher Rachel Weiss and her children was expected to boost the chances of Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir of the conservative Likud bloc, who advocates tougher measures against the Arab uprising in the occupied lands.

"There's no question it will help Likud," said Daniel Elazar, a political analyst of the Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs. "For most voters, this will only reconfirm their beliefs, but for those voters sitting on the fence something like this could push them off to the right."

Zeev Eitan, a political analyst at Tel Aviv University's Jaffee Center for Strategic Studies, said: "In this election, that could be the difference between a clear victory by one party or a tie."

Aerospace teams give proposals to NASA

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. — Two teams of aerospace firms submitted proposals to NASA on Monday for a space shuttle rocket motor plant, with Mississippi and Alabama officials hoping to put the $1.5 billion project in their state. The plant is to design, develop, test and evaluate a space shuttle solid rocket motor to replace the current redesigned solid rocket motor, which was overhauled after the shuttle Challenger exploded in January 1986.

Jerry Berg, a spokesman for the Marshall Space Flight Center, said the National Aeronautics and Space Administration could not disclose particulars of the proposals, including the sites for construction of the plant.

He said the NASA Source Evaluation Board would study the proposals, with a decision expected by next April.

Berg said one contractor team submitting a bid was Aerojet Solid Propulsion Co. of Sacramento, Calif., jointly with Lockheed Missiles and Space Co. of Sunnyvale, Calif.

The other team offering a proposal was Hercules Inc. of Magna, Utah, along with Atlantic Research Corp. of Gainesville, Va.

Bangerter ahead in Utah County

By ELONA J. WOODWARD Universe Staff Writer

A public opinion survey released Oct. 28 shows Republican Gov. Norman Bangerter leading the gubernatorial race among Utah County

The survey, conducted by The Walton Group, shows Utah County adults strongly support Bangerter in his re-election bid and oppose the controversial tax limitation initiatives.

The Walton Group is a Provo public relations agency which conducted the election survey in conjunction with another client poll. "No one hired us to conduct this survey. We were surveying the public for another client and just decided to add on a few questions about the elections," said Michael Call, director of opinion research for The Walton Group.

A total of 399 Utah County adults were interviewed Oct. 10-21, yielding a margin of error of plus or minus five

The results were not submitted to Bangerter or his opponents.

"Bangerter leads the race in Utah County with 42 percent of the adults saying they will vote for him," said Call. "Wilson has 26 percent of the votes and Cook has nearly 21 percent. Eleven percent are undecided."

Call said Bangerter's lead is a particular triumph for the governor, citing a survey conducted a year ago.

Ask him to Preference in style.

If elections were held today, how would

"In October, 1987, we asked Utah County residents if they would vote for Bangerter," he said. "Only 31 percent said they would vote for him, and 47 percent said they would definitely not vote for Bangerter. This tells me that the governor has made significant inroads with his campaign.

Margin of Error: Plus or minus 5%

Sample Size: 399

Call said he is surprised at the results because Wilson is in first place and Bangerter in second, according to statewide opinion polls. "The state poll results are reversed . . . Utah County is a very strong Republican county," said Call.

'Boldness of speech' reflected in AIDS pamphlet distribution

By STEFANY POLLAEHNE Universe Staff Writer

Every 14 minutes an AIDS case is reported in the United States and estimates are that more than 270,000 cases will arise by 1991, according to a speaker in BYU's 4th Annual Book of Mormon Symposium.

A recorded 28,000 people have died from AIDS and many European countries are reaching epidemic proportions, said Dr. Jack S. Johnson in his address, "Jacob Speaks Out to Our Day: AIDS, TV and Boldness in Quoting from the prophet Jacob, Johnson said, "It grieveth me that I must use so much boldness of speech concerning you, before your wives and your children."

Johnson said the boldness of speech that Jacob spoke of was used recently when 17 million pamphlets designed to combat AIDS were mailed to American homes. President Gordon B. Hinkley, a First Counselor in the for Family and Community History. First Presidency of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints said the observance of one rule would keep the spread of AIDS in check chastity before marriage and total fidelity in marriage. Johnson said some reasons for moral decay in a society are first, people lose their religious conviction; second, they become obsessed with sex; third, inflation runs amok; fourth, honest work is no longer cherished; fifth, society accepts violence and sixth, citizens are not willing to defend their country.

"People need revelation from God more now than ever before," said Johnson. "It takes special people to adhere to morality, and we need Church members who are dyed-inthe-wool, those who will hold fast."

Two of the nation's foremost authorities on genealogy will speak today from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in 321 ELWC, according to BYU's Center

The center will present an "Adventure in Genealogical Research" featuring guest speakers Ralph Crandall and Elizabeth Show-Mills.

England Historical Genealogical Society, the oldest such society in the United States.

According to the center, he has lectured at conferences, universities and historical societies throughout the United States on the subjects of genealogy and social science history. Mills, the second speaker on the program is one of the most interesting speakers on the subject of family history, said Ray Wright, director of the family history library in Salt Lake City. There are only two organizations in the nation that certify in genealogy, said Wright: The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and a certification board in Washington D.C. Mills has been certified by the board in Washington D.C., an honor that comes only to a few.

Underprivileged sixth graders asked to give to others

Associated Press

JACKSON, Miss. - Sixthgraders in the Jackson School District will have a new kind of homework to give to someone else.

The Best Program was created last year for 116 sixth-graders at Raines Elementary School, where administrators feared students from deprived neighborhoods would be easy recruits for gangs and drug dealers.

"We had a troubled group of sixthgraders last year. They had low selfesteem, no self-motivation, homework was just brought in in a sloppy manner," Raines Principal Rosalind Hambrick said. "I knew that we had to try to do something for these children before they got away from us."

"So we were looking for a counselor, a mentor, somebody, anything. We knew that Frank Melton (general manager) at WLBT-TV studios had done extensive work with gangs and troubled youth, so we called the studio and his secretary said we ought to talk with Dr. Yazdani."

Nanolla Yazdani, a psychologist, was working with Melton on developing anti-gang programs for the city. Yazdani had gained international publicity after developing a program for first-time, non-violent offenders assignment this spring: Earn money at the Misssissippi State Penitentiary at Parchman.

Stop fooling around. It's time to get hardcore about software. With Microsoft.

We'll give you all the resources you want. Tens of millions in R&D funding. Along with one of the most elementary tools for thinking — a door, which leads to your own private office. All backed by management that truly does speak your language, because they probably helped write it.

We're serious about software design and testing. If you are too, then sign up for an on-campus interview.

Software Design Engineers

Microsoft designs, develops and implements Applications and Systems software for microcomputers. Areas include networking, sophisticated graphical interfaces, operating systems, compilers, powerful business applications, and CD-ROM — an important breakthrough in information storage and retrieval.

Software Tester

Work as a team with our software developers to release first-class products. Identify strengths and weaknesses in future software and take responsibility for making necessary changes. Design and develop test applications to test systems software at the API level. Design, execute, and document test suites, generate test scripts, and conduct real world environment testing for our applications software.

Program Managers

Instant responsibility. You select the features, you shape the product, you design the user interface for new generations of software. Guide product development from programming through documentation and testing. Keep your product at the forefront of technology by knowing your competition and product trends.

Microsoft offers you an opportunity to live and work where the quality of life is high and the cost of living is low — the beautiful Pacific Northwest. Along with amenities such as a health club membership, workout facilities and parcourse, plus an array of benefits.

Microsoft will be interviewing on campus Friday, November 4 for Software Design Engineers, Program Managers, and Software Testers. We will also interview at this time for summer Software Design Engineer and Program Manager positions. See your placement office for details. We are an equal opportunity employer.
